June 2-1925

Mr. James Henderson Childs,
717 American Bank Bldg.,
Los Angeles, Cal.

My dear James:

Your letter of May 28th duly received and carefully noted. In as much as I have just opened the letter, I will not attempt to reply at this time, but am merely acknowledging receipt. The book and the daguerrotype has not yet turned up, but I presume it will during the day.

Kindly give my regards to Mr. E. Rumble and likewise his wife, also Walter Wise and the other Barnesville people in your city.

With usual kind regards, I beg to remain

Yours very sincerely,

J. C. COLLIER.
